RS/me

During June, Lyndhurst Auto acquired the BMW Dealership formerly trading as Stuart Bromfield.

A main factor which contributed to the purchase was the tremendous potential of the Aftersales area which has just been rebuilt and was a talking point within the BMW Network and definitely trendsetter.

It was subsequent to our purchase that I had the pleasure of meeting Glenda Lunsky who has been commissioned to create the internal architectural concept.

The back up support I have received from Glenda has always been with enthusiasm and professionalism and I have no hesitation in recommending her as a pioneer of her profession.

Yours faithfully
