

marc & michael

couture

Dear Glenda

Just a short note of thanks from one designer to another. In all honesty we had our doubts about contracting an interior designer for our home, being couturiers we thought that we could do the job ourselves. You proved us wrong!

Your professional and efficient manner combined with the exuberance and energy you put into your work is remarkable. You have taken our vision and stretched it further than what we could have dreamed of.

Love,

Michael Pokroy